

I would like to go on record to oppose the NAB's request that would restrict satellite operators from providing important and potentially life saving weather and traffic coverage.

Sam Giannavola